Notes from the Pastor

Parish Auction. We are counting down the days; just over a month away! The auction website continues to be tweaked and items added. Check it out if you wish: charityauction.bid/stmarysauction2022.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA). I'm planning on offering a RCIA class, starting after Labor Day. If you know of someone that may be interested, let me know and I'll send them a personal letter explaining RCIA and inviting them to attend. This is also an opportunity for those Catholics who are interested in updating their knowledge and understanding of the Catholic faith to attend. Day and time of classes: TBD (probably Thursday evenings at 7:00pm).

Religious Education & 8th Grade Confirmation. We are planning to start as scheduled, Wednesday, September 7 (Wednesday after Labor Day). We will start the first week with Mass, after children have checked in with their teacher. Parents are encouraged to come to Mass and pray along with their children. Be ready to sign up your children for CCD. Forms are available in the back of the church, on church website and at the parish office.

YDisciple/Youth Program. Our high school youth program YDisciple will start soon. We are planning to send out letters of invitation to parents and high school students (Freshman, Sophomore, Juniors, and Seniors) soon. We will be looking for mentors (both male and female) to help lead the groups that will be formed. More details will come later.

Catechism Trivia

367. What are the sources of the morality of human acts? The morality of human acts depends on three sources: the object chosen, either a true or apparent good: the intention of the subject who acts, that is, the purpose for which the subject performs the act; and the circumstances of the act, which include its consequences. Further reading: CCC 1749-1754, 1757-1758

368. When is an act morally good? An act is morally good when it assumes simultaneously the goodness of the object, of the end, and of circumstances. A chosen object can by itself vitiate an act in its entirety, even if the intention is good. It is not licit to do evil so that good may result from it. An evil end corrupts the action, even if the object is good in itself. On the other hand, a good end does not make an act good if the object of that act is evil, since the end does not justify the means. Circumstances can increase or diminish the responsibility of the one who is acting but they cannot change the moral quality of the acts themselves. They never make good an act which is in itself evil. Further reading: CCC 1755-1756, 1759-1760

369. Are there acts which are always illicit? There are some acts which, in and of themselves, are always illicit by reason of their object (for example, blasphemy, homicide, adultery). Choosing such acts entails a disorder of the will, that is, a moral evil which can never be justified by appealing to the good effects which could possibly result from them. Further reading: CCC 1756, 1761

Have a good week! Fr. Dana
